The Prayer of Saint Francis

Lord, make me an instrument of thy peace.

Where there is hatred, let me sow love;

Where there is injury, pardon;

Where there is doubt, faith;

Where there is despair, hope;

Where there is darkness, light;

Where there is sadness, joy.

O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek

To be consoled as to console,

To be understood as to understand,

To be loved as to love;

For it is in giving that we receive;

It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;

It is in dying to self that we are born to eternal life

The members and friends of Kettering
Seventh-day Adventist church, give you a very warm welcome as you join with us in worshipping God on this wonderful Sabbath day.

Our Church is in the Hands of Jesus

“Christ is in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks, walking from church to church, from congregation to congregation, from heart to heart. He that keepeth Israel neither slumbers nor sleeps. If the candlesticks were left to the care of human beings, how often the light would flicker and go out! But God has not given His church into the hands of men. Christ, the One who gave His life for the world, that all who believe in Him may not perish but have everlasting life, is the Watchman of the house. He is the Warder, faithful and true, of the temple courts of the Lord”

E.G.W. (Lift Him Up, October 31)

It is a blessing to come to Sabbath School.

Roy and May Hulbert

Please remember Roy and May Hulbert in your prayers. May is very poorly, she is in the Cranford ward at Kettering General Hospital (Top Floor). The visiting times are from 12:00 to 7:00 pm.

Roy has now been admitted to the Corby Community Hospital, Cottingham Road. Visiting times are: 2:00-4:30 and 6:00-8:00 pm. We are not sure when Roy will be discharged. A care plan is being arranged first. Once home, Roy will appreciate visits at home.

Glenys has asked that we co-ordinate our visiting with her. That way we will try to give them at least one visitor a day. If you have received an e-mail with a visiting time table, please fill in the times you can visit. Thanks.

The next ‘Prayer and Praise’ evening will be held Tuesday, 22nd March at 7:30 p.m. Please contact Sven and Roma for details of the venue.

Teaching and Reaching for all Sabbath School Teachers.

We will spend some time exploring the ways that we can ensure that our teaching is reaching the members and inspiring them to go out to the wider community and share their faith.

In preparation for community members attending Sabbath School, this Congress is to help sharpen our Sabbath School teaching methods. We can always benefit with extra tuition. Please plan to attend.

Thought for the Day

“The most simple rule for good prayer is honesty and humility. One can never go wrong with those two. Talk honestly to God. Don’t give God the self you think you’re supposed to be. Give God yourself in your nakedness, who you really are, even if that means giving God your anger or distractions”

Richard Rohr

“Never envy the wicked! Soon they fade away like grass and disappear. Trust in the Lord instead. Be kind and good to others; then you will live safely here in the land and prosper, feeding in safety”

Psalms 37:1-3 The Living Bible

“It is not your responsibility to explain what God is doing with your life. He has not provided enough information for you to figure it out. Instead, you are asked to turn loose and let God be God”

James Dobson

More Thoughts For The Day

“We may ignore, but we can nowhere evade, the presence of God”

C. S. Lewis

“Satan fails to speak of the remorse, the futility, the loneliness, and the spiritual devastation which go hand in hand with immorality”

Billy Graham

“Life is a series of choices between the bad, the good, and the best. Everything depends on how we choose”

Vance Havner
