Heaven Is A Good Place

"Heaven is a good place. I long to be there and behold my lovely Jesus, who gave His life for me, and be changed into His glorious image. Oh, for language to express the glory of the bright world to come! I thirst for the living streams that make glad the city of our God..."

The nations of the saved will know no other law than the law of heaven. All will be a happy, united family, clothed with the garments of praise and thanksgiving. Over the scene the morning stars will sing together, and the sons of God will shout for joy, while God and Christ will unite in proclaiming, 'There shall be no more sin, neither shall there be any more death.'"

E.G.W. (The Adventist Home, section 18, cp. 86, pg. 543-544)

It is a blessing to come to Sabbath School.

Roy and May Hulbert

Please remember Roy and May Hulbert in your prayers. May is very poorly, she is in the Cranford ward at Kettering General Hospital (Top Floor). The visiting times are from 12:00 to 7:00 pm.

Roy is now back home. He is missing May and would appreciate a visit.

Glenys has asked that we co-ordinate our visiting with her. That way we will try to give them at least one visitor a day. If you have received an e-mail with a visiting time table, please fill in the times you can visit. Thanks.

"Prayer and Praise"

The next 'Prayer and Praise' evening will be held Tuesday, 6th April at 7:30 p.m. Please contact Sven and Roma for details of the venue.

Roma's mobile number is:

When the Church prays together, big things happen. Prove it...

No Bulletin Next Sabbath 1st April.

Due to a funeral in Sweden it is unfortunate that I will not be able to provide a bulletin next Sabbath.

Thought for the Day

"O Christ, I see thy crown of thorns in every eye, thy bleeding, naked, wounded body in every soul; thy death liveth in every memory; thy crucified Person is embalmed in every affection; thy pierced feet are bathed in everyone's tears; and it is my privilege to enter with thee into every soul"

Thomas Traherne

"While he was still speaking, there came a crowd, and the man called Judas, one of the twelve, was leading them. He drew near to Jesus to kiss him; but Jesus said to him, "Judas, would you betray the Son of man with a kiss?" And when those who were about him saw what would follow, they said, "Lord, shall we strike with the sword?" And one of them struck the slave of the high priest and cut off his right ear. But Jesus said, "No more of this!" And he touched his ear and healed him. Then Jesus said to the chief priests and officers of the temple and elders, who had come out against him, "Have you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs? When I was with you day after day in the temple, you did not lay hands on me. But this is your hour, and the power of darkness." Then they seized him and led him away, bringing him into the high priest's house"

Luke 22:47-54 (The Revised Standard Version)

"Immanuel, God with us in our nature, in our sorrow, in our lifework, in our punishment, in our grave, and now with us, or rather we with Him, in resurrection, ascension, triumph, and Second Advent splendour"

C. H. Spurgeon
