FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

1 John 2:15-17 (KJV)

When you meditate, imagine that Jesus Christ in person is about to talk to you about the most important thing in the world. Give him your complete attention.

Francois Fenelon

Matthew 10: 34-42

34) "Think not that I am come to bring peace to the earth. I did not come to bring peace, but a sword.

35) For I have come to turn a man against his father, a daughter against her mother, a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law—

36) a man's enemies will be the members of his own household.

37) Anyone who loves their father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; anyone who loves their son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.

38) Whoever does not take up their cross and follow me is not worthy of me.

39) Whoever finds their life will lose it, and whoever loses their life for my sake will find it.

40) Anyone who welcomes you welcomes me, and anyone who welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me.

41) Whoever welcomes a prophet as a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and whoever welcomes a righteous person as a righteous person will receive a righteous person's reward.

42) And if anyone gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones who is my disciple, truly I tell you, that person will certainly not lose their reward."

Barnes Notes on the Bible

Think not that I am come ... - This is taken from Micah 7:6. Christ did not here mean to say that the object of His coming was to produce discord and contention, for He was the Prince of Peace, Isaiah 9:6; Isaiah 11:6; Luke 2:14; but He means to say that such would be one of the effects of His coming. One part of a family that was opposed to Him would set themselves against those who believed in Him. The wickedness of men, and not the religion of the gospel, is the cause of this hostility. It is unnecessary to say that no prophecy has been more strikingly fulfilled; and it will continue to be fulfilled until all unite in obeying His commandments.
