Thought for the day

"Nations, cultures, arts, civilizations—these are mortal, and their life is to ours as the life of a gnat. But it is immortals whom we joke with, work with, marry, snub, and exploit—immortal horrors or everlasting splendours"

C. S. Lewis

"When you think you've acquired every tool
And graduated from life's hard school,
Someone with infinite resources
Thinks up several brand-new courses"

Ruth Boorstin

Prayer and Praise

Our regular 'Prayer and Praise' will meet this Tuesday at 14:00 at the home of Sven and Roma. Please read Joshua 7 in preparation for this week. You are welcome to join with us as we meet together to pray for the Holy Spirit's enabling's in our church and community.

If you would like to host it in your home please let us know. If you would like to keep in touch via "WhatsApp" please let Sven know.

He who does not have time to pray, does not have time to be a Christian. In the same way a person who does not have time to speak to their spouse, does not have time to be married.

If you find it difficult to meet during the day because of work commitments, why not start another prayer group that meets in the evening? Please convey your interest to the bulletin, so that we can pass it on to others.

Double Baptism 25th February

The baptism of Eled and Caroline Chinkhumba will take place next Sabbath 25th February during the 11:15 Divine service.

Please invite your friends to this special personal testimony service. A baptism service is a powerful witness to the relevance of Jesus in the life of individuals today. It is a simple yet powerful reminder that the opportunity to commit ones life to Jesus is as relevant today as it was when Jesus was on earth.

Following the baptism there will be a: 'Bring and Share' pot-luck lunch. Please bring enough food for yourselves and a little extra for any unexpected visitors. Any willing hands to assist with the washing up etc., after lunch would be most welcome. Thank you.
