SMILE

A Senior's Perspective on Facebook

For those of my generation who do not comprehend why Facebook exists, I am trying to make friends outside Facebook, applying the same principles.

Therefore, every day I walk down the street and tell passersby what I have eaten, how I feel at the moment, what I have done the night before, what I will do later and with whom.

I give them pictures of my family, my dog, of me gardening, taking things apart in the garage, watering the lawn, standing in front of landmarks, driving around town, having lunch, and doing what anybody and everybody does every day. I also listen to their conversations, give them the 'thumbs up' and tell them I like them. And it works just like Facebook.

I already have four people following me: Two police officers, a private investigator and a psychiatrist.

Thought For The Day

A man one day visited his general store in the village. Working at the store was a man called Jake, who seemed to be the laziest man in the world. One day the man noticed that Jake was gone. He asked the proprietor, "Where's Jake today?" "Oh, he has left," was the answer. "Left"? Then what are you going to do to fill the vacancy?" The owner replied, "Jake didn't leave no vacancy."

That leads me to a question? "What kind of vacancy would there be in this church if you left?" Would you be missed or would no-one notice you were gone?

Reformation Video

The weekend of 11-13 August 2017 at Stanborough Park, was one that will be remembered for a long time with the events and activities that took place celebrating the 500 years of the Protestant Reformation.

Below are two short three and half minute video links that were made by the British Union Conference (BUC) Evangelism department.

Ancient Words

(Michael W. Smith)

Holy words long preserved
For our walk in this world,
They resound, with God's own heart,
Oh let the ancient words impart

Words of Life, words of Hope
Give us strength, help us cope
In this world, where e'er we roam
Ancient words will guide us Home.

Holy words of our Faith
Handed down to this age.
Came to us through sacrifice
Oh heed the faithful words of Christ.

Holy words long preserved
For our walk in this world,
They resound, with God's own heart,
Oh let the ancient words impart

Chorus:
Ancient words ever true
Changing me, and changing you.
We have come, with open hearts
Oh let the ancient words impart.

On last chorus repeat last two lines x2

We have come, with open hearts
Oh let the ancient words impart.
