Final thoughts on the Week-of-Prayer

Today is the last and final reading for this year's Week-of-Prayer. During this week we have focused on the gospel as the basis of our salvation in Christ alone. Jesus' love and acceptance of sinners - no matter how bad - is why we have hope.

This year marks the 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation, when the message of salvation through Christ alone was heard by many for the first time. Light spread not only through the teachings of the great Reformers, but through God's Word itself, as the Bible became available in common languages and people could read the truth for themselves.

It is fitting that our Week of Prayer readings in 2017 focus on "Christ Our Righteousness," for there is truly "no other name under heaven . . . by which we must be saved" (Acts 4:12).

Ellen White expressed this thought beautifully during a General Conference session when she said, "The only way in which men will be able to stand firm in the conflict is to be rooted and grounded in Christ. . . . The preaching of Christ crucified, Christ our righteousness, is what satisfies the soul's hunger. When we secure the interest of the people in this great central truth, faith and hope and courage come to the heart."

May this week have been an encouragement to you all, as we have spent time reflecting on these special readings. May we also have been blessed by spending this time in God's Word and prayer. Focused together on "Christ Our Righteousness." If you have missed these reading, please log on to the link below.

"Don't pray when you feel like it. Have an appointment with the Lord and keep it. A man is powerful on his knees"

Corrie Ten Boom

"When you can't put your prayers into words, God hears your heart"

Unknown

"It is not thy hold on Christ that saves thee; it is Christ. It is not thy joy in Christ that saves thee; it is Christ. It is not even thy faith in Christ, though that be the instrument; it is Christ's blood and merit"

C. H. Spurgeon

"As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he said unto the ruler of the synagogue, be not afraid, only believe"

Mark 5:36 (KJV)

"When we come to the end of ourselves, we come to the beginning of God"

Billy Graham

"Don't be concerned about the outward beauty of fancy hairstyles, expensive jewellery, or beautiful clothes. You should clothe yourselves instead with the beauty that comes from within, the unfading beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is so precious to God"
