A Sad Sad Story About Nobody

This is a story about four people, named: Everybody, Somebody, Anybody and Nobody. There was an important job to be done and Everybody thought Somebody would do it. Anybody could have done it, but Nobody did it. Somebody got angry about it because it was Everybody's job. Everybody thought that Anybody could do it, but no one realised that Anybody wouldn't do it. It ended up that Everybody blamed Somebody, when Nobody did what Anybody could have done.

Phone someone and pray with them. The fact that we are praying makes the difference. May God be praised for His goodness.

*All quotes today are in memory of Billy Graham, a world-wide Evangelist who died Wednesday 21st February at the age of 99 years

"What kind of place is heaven? First, heaven is home. The Bible takes the word "home," with all its tender associations and with all of its sacred memories and tells us that heaven is home. Second, heaven is a home which is permanent. We have the promise of a home where Christ's followers will remain forever. Third, the Bible teaches that heaven is a home which is beautiful beyond every imagination. Heaven could not help but be so, because God is a God of beauty. Fourth, the Bible teaches that heaven will be a home which is happy, because there will be nothing to make it sad. In heaven, families and friends will be reunited. God's house will be a happy home because Christ will be there. He will be the centre of heaven. To Him all hearts will turn, and upon Him as eyes will rest"

"In God's economy, you must go down into the shadow of grief before you can scale the heights of spiritual glory. You must come to the end of self before you begin to live"

"Some of the staunchest Christians I know are people who had periods in their life when they questioned the Bible, Christ, and God. But as they continued to examine the matter, there was overwhelming evidence that only "the fool hath said in his heart, there is no God."

"It is strange that men will prepare for everything except death"

"Some people have received Christ but have never reached spiritual maturity. We should grow as Christians every day, and we are not completely mature until we live in the presence of Christ"

"To know the will of God is the highest of all wisdom"

"Think of the blessings we so easily take for granted: Life itself; preservation from danger; every bit of health we enjoy; every hour of liberty; the ability to see, to hear, to speak, to think, and to imagine all this comes from the hand of God"

"When we come to the end of ourselves, we come to the beginning of God"

"Anxiety is the natural result when our hopes are centred in anything short of God and His will for us"

"My prayer for you today is that you will feel the loving arms of God wrapped around you"
