Children' Social - Report

The Children Sabbath School Department, would like to thank Kettering SDA Church and the Board Members for their tremendous support. The Children Social event was a blessing! Our Children invited their friends to attend. They had lots of games, snacks, pizzas, popcorn and film to end the evening.

The Film was “Facing the Giants”

Directed by and starring, Grant Taylor (Alex Kendrick) who was the head coach at Shiloh Christian Academy. Grant had yet to post a winning record in his six-year tenure. After his seventh season begins with a three-game losing streak, the players' fathers start making noises about replacing him with defensive coordinator Brady Owens. This is not the only problem Grant was facing; his car is breaking down, and he discovers that he is the reason that his wife Brooke cannot become pregnant.

Grant creates a new coaching philosophy and decides to praise God, no matter what the result. At the same time, he guides and urges each one of his players to give the maximum effort, and motivated them to believe they can win under God's guidance. This influence spreads to the rest of the school. From that point on, the Eagles win all their remaining regular season games after losing the first three and make the state playoffs. As a result, Grant is given a raise in salary rather than being fired and is also provided with a brand-new truck from grateful boosters. The Eagles lost their playoff opener, but are declared the winner after the opponent used ineligible players. The Eagles then advance all the way to the state championship game against the three-time defending champion Richland Giants. Even though the Eagles have only a third as many players as the Giants, the Eagles hold their own and ultimately win the game on a 51-yard field goal from a backup kicker who had never kicked more than a 35-yarder before. Grant's prayers for children are also answered as he and Brooke have children after two years.

Special Thanks to the Children who were brilliant! and all the adults who came.
