REMINDER TO PARENTS WITH SMALL CHILDREN

Please look after your children, particularly at the break time (after children's Sabbath school – before Divine Service) and at the end of the church service, and do not let them wander unsupervised out of the church building and onto the street.

We need to keep the church family safe at all times!

(Church Board)

Pr Roy Hulbert

We understand that Pr Roy Hulbert has now been transferred to Ward 33, Glenfield Hospital, Leicester pending consultation with his surgeon. It is advisable to check that he is still there before visiting and whether or not he has been moved to another ward. Let us continue to remember Roy and his family in prayer.

Song Service

After Sabbath School there will be a period of singing. Our call to worship; "Be Still For The Presence Of The Lord" will begin, the platform party enter.

Thought For The Day

"Do not limit the benefits of fasting merely to abstinence from food, for a true fast means refraining from evil"

Ambrose

"Blessed be the LORD, that hath given rest unto his people Israel, according to all that he promised: there hath not failed one word of all his good promise, which he promised by the hand of Moses his servant"

1 Kings 8:56 (KJV)

"You will always have joy in the evening if you spend the day fruitfully"

Thomas Kempis

Alice Bell

Alice Bell (1910 - 2009), became an assistant minister, first In Glasgow and then in South Wales. She met her husband (George Bell) also a minister in the Seventh-day Adventist church. She remained active supporting him, giving Bible studies, assisting at children's camps and cooking under wartime conditions. She describes the two world wars and remained active until her death.

After she reached 70 years of age, she was free to travel and studied at Birmingham and Oxford Universities and spent time researching and writing on Genesis, the Gospels and the life of Paul. She preached and gave talks in many different churches and meeting places until her death. Her three books are unique in their substance and she will be of interest to both Christians and non-believers alike.

Her three books are available on Kindle or can be ordered direct from June Bell
