Last week the question was asked:
"Why should we tell others about Jesus?"

Once we accept the fact that we cannot save ourselves; we then must also conclude that we cannot save others. So, if we don't go out to save others why do we go out?

Roma responded to this question by saying:

"Telling others about Jesus is all about working together with God. Jesus said He will be with us. To honestly tell about Jesus we have to allow the Holy Spirit to work in and through us. It is as much for our benefit as for those we are telling. God is not willing that any should perish but that all should come to eternal life"

If you have anything else you would like to say about this please email me.
