Thought For The Day

“Don't ask God to guide your steps, if you are not prepared to move your feet”

Unknown

“Certainly there are promises in the Old Testament which relate to material things. But if God was faithful and merciful to Israel, whom He chose, not because of their righteousness but only because of His love and mercy for them, how much more reason today to rest on the faithfulness of Him who gave His beloved Son for us! In that faithfulness is assured our right to God's promises”

Philip E. Howard, Jr.

“To love to preach is one thing - to love those to whom we preach, quite another.

Richard Cecil

“Every morning I open the window for my King's grace, and every evening I sleep upon the pillow of his love and care”

Kettering Church Business Meeting

The Pastor has confirmed that Kettering church business meeting will take place on Sabbath 26th January at: 17:00. Would all church officers have their reports ready. This is your opportunity to have your say and feel part of our church family. Thank you.

District 7 Planning Committee

The reason for the Business Meeting being put back is to accommodate our District 7 planning committee. This committee, which will be made up of delegates from all the churches in District 7, will meet at 16:00 to discuss plans for the forthcoming Day of Fellowship on Sabbath 2nd March. The Day of Fellowship will be held at: Wellingborough URC Church, High Street, NN8 4HW

Why Study Revelation?

Let us give more time to the study of the Bible. We do not understand the word as we should. The book of Revelation opens with an injunction to us to understand the instruction that it contains. "Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy," God declares, "and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand." When we as a people understand what this book means to us, there will be seen among us a great revival. We do not understand fully the lessons that it teaches, notwithstanding the injunction given us to search and study it.

“In the past teachers have declared Daniel and the Revelation to be sealed books, and the people have turned from them. The veil whose apparent mystery has kept many from lifting it, God's own hand has withdrawn from these portions of His word. The very name "Revelation" contradicts the statement that it is a sealed book. "Revelation" means that something of importance is revealed. The truths of this book are addressed to those living in these last days. We are standing with the veil removed in the holy place of sacred things. We are not to stand without. We are to enter, not with careless, irreverent thoughts, not with impetuous footsteps, but with reverence and godly fear. We are nearing the time when the prophecies of the book of Revelation are to be fulfilled. . . .”
