ADRA

The annual ADRA UK appeal is from 30th March to 14th April. You will need collecting tins and permits to collect from door to door. Please confirm with Colleen Lewis how many tins you would like. Colleen has all the information you require.

ADRA has some spare places available if you would like to be a volunteer for two weeks in the Philippines and or Sri Lanka. There is a poster on the notice board with more information and contact details.

Kettering Prayer Meeting

Last Wednesday of each month at 19:30

Corby Inaugural Church Service

The official service that welcomes the Corby Company into the sisterhood of churches in the North England Conference will be held on Sabbath 18th May.

The venue is:

*Brooke Weston Academy,
Coombe Road, Great Oakley, Corby NN18 8LA.*

The day begins at 10:00.

Because there will be a limit on numbers it has been requested that if you plan to attend you confirm with Marylyn Mavaza (Corby Church Clerk) your intentions before the 4th May. Thank you.
Tel: 07590 925137

The Conference President Pastor Richard Jackson will be our special guest speaker for the day. There will also be a number of other special guests and musical groups that will help make this day a special and meaningful occasion.

Lunch will be provided for all our visitors and ample parking spaces are available.

Corby church has prepared a vision statement which is as follows:

To become a leading church of influence for biblical teaching, health, family, children and community ministries within Corby town as we extend the Kingdom of God as a part of the North England Conference of Seventh-day Adventists.

Please help Corby church fulfil this vision by giving them a financial contribution towards their building fund. With much appreciation. Thank you
